Take the Acronym Challenge

Arlene and her husband James came up with the R-O-B-S acronym to communicate their core values to their children:

R: Do what's Right.

O: Do to Others as you would have done to yourself.

B: Do your Best.

S: Smile.

What basic rules and core values do you want to emphasize in your home? Do a bit of brainstorming and then take one evening to work with your spouse or even with your kids to come up with an acronym that fits your family's style and goals.
